GEORGIA • KAZAKHSTAN • POLAND

Living with a host family and attending a local school for an academic year, Future Leaders Exchange (FLEX) Abroad students promote mutual understanding between the United States and their host country by forming lasting relationships with the local community. FLEX Abroad is a full scholarship program of the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

Launched in 1993 after the dissolution of the Soviet Union, the FLEX program strengthens ties between the peoples of the United States and Europe, Eurasia, and Central Asia. More than 30,000 FLEX alumni from 24 countries across Europe and Eurasia are making a difference in our world. In 2022, the inaugural FLEX Abroad program will offer American high schoolers the chance to experience these amazing countries.

Eager to learn MORE ABOUT THE WORLD?

"The program opened my eyes and heart to the global community. By being a daughter, sister and friend I was able to learn about and share culture. I now have two homes, two families and countless friends from around the world.

— Hannah, alum of FLEX Abroad's sister program, YES Abroad

"The most rewarding part of my experience was meeting my host family. They became my real family, and I miss them so much right now. They really accepted me and helped me become fully immersed in their culture.

— Christina, alum of FLEX Abroad's sister program, the National Security Language Initiative for Youth (NSLI-Y)

"The chance to make person to person connections with locals allows for a unique level of cultural understanding that cannot be taught through any kind of guidebook.

— Ryan, NSLI-Y alum

By participating in FLEX Abroad, you will develop leadership skills, make friends in other countries, learn about a new culture by living with a host family, and gain an understanding of global interests and values that are shared across cultures. Your experience will promote the development of respectful and enduring relationships between Americans and citizens of other countries, while giving you new insights into your own culture and the world.

Ready to embrace a NEW COUNTRY and CULTURE?
